

Humanities

Concentration

Description

This minor is intended for any student who would like to strengthen the general studies component of his/her degree. It is comprised of 18 hours of humanities coursework including selections in English, Literature, History, Philosophy, and Foreign Language. It may include transfer work and may be of particular interest to transfer students who already hold an Associate of Arts.