

BC 305 - History of Christianity II

3 Credit Hours

A survey of the modern period, beginning with the Protestant and Radical Reformations, continuing into the twenty-first century. Special emphasis will be placed on figures and movements of dissent that led up to the Christianization of Europe and the western expanse of the church into the New World. There also will be a strong emphasis on the impact of Christianity on the Western world politically, culturally, etc.