

BIN 500 - Introduction to Hermeneutics

3 Credit Hours

An introduction to valid methodology for determining the original meaning of biblical texts and applying their modern significance. Special attention is given to historical development, principles of interpretation, and relationship to the covenants and eschatology.