

BN 303 - Epistle to the Romans

3 Credit Hours

An exegetical and expositional study of Romans. Emphasis is given to Paul's flow of thought as he develops the epistle's argument. Man's state before God, justification, Israelology, the consecrated life of the believer, and other key doctrinal issues are presented. Practical applications to modern culture are made throughout the course.

Prerequisites

BO 101 BN 102