

CE 202 - Foundations of Children's Ministry

3 Credit Hours

This course is a broad introduction to the essentials of children's ministry. It includes an historical and biblical examination of the fundamentals which shape children and family ministries. Emphasis is placed on formation of a personal and biblical philosophy of children's ministry, management of the ministry setting and the basic evaluation of ministries, facilities and curriculum.