

CE 303 - Christian Education of Children

3 Credit Hours

A course designed to aid students in the ministry of teaching Bible to children, preschool years through the elementary grades. Students will consider age-level characteristics, evangelism, developmentally appropriate methods, and biblical curriculum materials. During the latter half of the course, students will participate in both real and simulated teaching experiences.