

ED 203 - Diverse Learners

3 Credit Hours

A survey course that addressed the dispositions, knowledge and skills needed to teach students with various disabilities as defined by the Individuals with Disabilities Act in general education classrooms. Current laws, services, instructional strategies and assessments for diverse learners in the regular classroom are discussed.