

EDU 533 - Meeting the Needs of Exceptional Learners

3 Credit Hours

An examination of the issues related to the growth and education of students who have academic challenges and/or are academically and intellectually gifted. Topics include effective instructional strategies, legal requirements, and contemporary issues related to these students and their education.