

EDU 640 - Teaching in Higher Education

3 Credit Hours

A course designed to introduce the organization, instructional strategies, and practices of teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Topics include the college learner, course design and documentation, curriculum resources, assessment strategies, technology, and online learning.