

EDU 681 - Thesis/Portfolio

3 Credit Hours

This is a capstone class intended to reflect graduate-level knowledge and research skills, as well as professional presentation skills. Students will complete scaffolded projects that showcase their progression as professional educators and demonstrate their research and leadership skills. This should be the last course taken in the program unless special permission is granted.