

EE 405 - Teaching Fine Arts

3 Credit Hours

A study of methods and materials for art and music as delivered by classroom teachers. The course includes a biblical philosophy of fine arts, plus actual experience with a variety of media, skills, development, and ideas for various learning experiences. (Prerequisite: Admission to the Moore School of Education)