

EE 421 - Education Practicum I-Elem. Educ.

1 Credit Hours

This is the capstone experience for teacher-education majors. It involves a semester's worth of fulltime classroom experiences, including a period of weeks for teaching a full load of subject matter and includes both informal and formal observations. Special fee may be required. (Prerequisite: Completion of all coursework up to the final semester of the program and approval of the Moore School of Education faculty.)