

GC 103 - Introduction to Computers - Technology in Ministry

1 Credit Hours

A course introducing students to various uses for technology in ministry. Selected emphases may include Bible software (Logos), worship software, administrative software, and website based ministry resources