

GF 102 - Survey of Fine Arts (Art)

1 Credit Hours

A course introducing historical perspectives on the development of the visual arts, including a study of representative works of various historical style periods and points toward expansion of the aesthetic response.