

GH 204 - American Government

3 Credit Hours

A study of the American political system with emphasis on the theory and practice of government. Topics include the Constitution, federalism, the three branches of government, civil rights, and liberties. The role of the Christian in the American political process also will be integrated into the course content.