

GH 308 - Field Experience in History

2 Credit Hours

A course providing an opportunity for the student to apply his/her skills gained through class in a selected minor. A College supervisor in the minor field will work with the student individually to implement an appropriate list of practical experiences.