

LEA 807 - Leadership & Diversity

3 Credit Hours

Modern Society is increasingly diverse across several dimensions including gender, nationality, culture, race, and ethnicity. Yet, leadership in many contexts is exclusively the domain of certain privileged sections of society. This course will examine the value of diversity, issues of exclusion and inclusion, leadership gaps, and the ability of leaders to effect social transformation through inclusive leadership.