

ME 111 - Orchestra

1 Credit Hours

(Must have sufficient number of students to cover instrumentation for course to be offered.) The study and performing of orchestral music literature based on particular student instrumentation, including independent and coached preparation. The course fulfills the ensemble requirement for students whose proficiency is a woodwind, brass, or stringed instrument. Open to all students.