

MFC 620 - Human Development across the Life Span

3 Credit Hours

An examination of major developmental theories as they relate to the interconnected roles of biology, family interaction, social context, and culture. The special tasks, challenges, and concerns for age-stage related issues are considered in light of applicable sound human development principles.