

MG 111 - Introduction to Management

3 Credit Hours

This course introduces the critical management skills involved in planning, structuring, controlling, and leading an organization while providing a framework for understanding issues involved in both managing and being managed in an organization to help students become more effective contributors in the workplace. This course examines the effect of organizations' decisions in contexts including environment, strategy, structure, culture, tasks, people, and outputs.