

MG 243 - Principles of Accounting

3 Credit Hours

This course is an introduction to the accounting process, with emphasis on identifying, recording, classifying, and interpreting transactions and other events relating to proprietorships and partnerships.