

MIN 740 - Challenges to the Christian World View

3 Credit Hours

A critical discussion of several of Christianity's major strategic competitors in contemporary and continual global society. The systems to be studied include pluralism, postmodernism, open theism, and post-liberalism. The examination includes how these forces affect the world at large and how they are influencing both mainline and evangelical Christians.