

PE 409 - Prevention and Care of Athletic Injuries

3 Credit Hours

This course presents a practical approach to treating injuries resulting from athletic participation. Students will learn how to implement an effective strength training program, how to tape for support and prevention of injuries, and basic first aid techniques including the administration of CPR. Students may be required to purchase a case of athletic tape for this course.