

PT 202 - Church Education

3 Credit Hours

An introduction to Christian education dealing with the practical implication of research in these areas: (1) local church educational ministry to children nursery age through 6th grade, (2) local church educational ministry to youth between grade 7 and grade 12, (3) local church educational ministry to young adults through senior adult age, (4) educational leadership in the local church including administration, curriculum selection, recruitment, training and retention of volunteers.