

RES 501 - Research Methods & Writing

3 Credit Hours

A course dealing with research writing. Included are principles of research, appraisal of information, problems of arranging material in logical sequence, research paper format, and elements of clear expository writing.