

SL 301 - American Sign Language V

3 Credit Hours

This course is an advanced study of American Sign Language. Students analyze and enhance their own use of ASL features such as spatial mapping, adjectives, and cohesion. The class focuses on the most common communication situations. Students engage in spontaneous, informal conversations, discussion topics, and give formal ASL presentations on a variety of topics.

Prerequisites

SL 202