

ED 307 - Field Experience II

1 Credit Hours

A structured classroom experience taken in conjunction with methods courses. The 2nd field experience includes observing a qualified practicing teacher as well as providing instructional support for either individual students or a small group of students and teaching at least two whole group lessons with support. Preservice teachers write targeted reflections that apply, reflect upon and expand knowledge and skills learned in methods courses.