

MG 436 - Effective Executive Leadership

3 Credit Hours

This course focuses on growing the student's capacity as a leader through customized lessons designed to improve performance and results at work, home, and in the community. Students will study highly effective leaders and the commonalities of great leadership.