

SL 347 - Deaf History

3 Credit Hours

A study of the Deaf experience from a historical perspective. This course considers selected points of the history of Deaf people starting with ancient world and progressing to present day. It considers how the historical impact of legislative, educational, and political events contribute to the contemporary lives of deaf, deafblind and hard of hearing people in America.