

SL 420 - Interpreting in the VR Setting

3 Credit Hours

In this class, students will be introduced to Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) as a system and gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of the challenging field of VR interpreting and the variety of rewarding opportunities it offers. Topics include VR and the VR system, interpreting for VR consumers and Deaf professionals, ethical decision-making, and interpreting observation/practice.