

BH 203 - Biblical Interpretation: Procedure and Practice

3 Credit Hours

This course demonstrates how to objectively discover the meaning of Scripture and how to apply that meaning. Attention is given to literary genre, culture, context, and word usage in order to properly interpret the biblical text. Students are then guided on how to apply the interpretive procedure to the overall message of Scripture and to the ethical decisions of daily life.