

MG 211 - Economics I

3 Credit Hours

In this course, we will lay the foundation for future business classes. We will develop an understanding of essential microeconomics topics such as the interaction of demand and supply, consumer choice, technology and firms, market structures, and government regulation. After completing this course, you should have developed a range of skills enabling you to understand economic concepts and use those concepts to analyze specific questions.