

MG 410 - Supply Chain Management

3 Credit Hours

This course introduces students to logistics techniques, practices, and policies in commercial enterprises. Students will learn the interaction between domestic and international supply chains, ethical sourcing, compliance, and the necessity to optimize logistics for customer service and business profitability.