

CJ 320 - Crime & Drug Addiction

3 Credit Hours

This course studies the relationship between drug addiction and crime. Topics covered include various types of drugs and their effects, drug use and abuse, addiction and the origin of drug laws. Emphasis is placed on how the criminal justice system handles drug offenders. Experts in the field provide laboratory experience and hands-on activities.