

CJ 407 - International Crime and Justice

3 Credit Hours

This course offers students an overview of current issues in international criminal justice. It introduces crime as a global issue through analysis of transnational and international crime problems. It will briefly survey the work of international criminal justice institutions such as the ICC and ad hoc tribunals established to provide justice for victims of genocide and other mass crimes.