

THE 745 - Advanced Biblical Theology

3 Credit Hours

An advanced study of the theological nature of biblical revelation in its historical, canonical, and exegetical context. The course seeks to identify links between the Testaments, traces the story line of biblical themes, and highlights the theological significance of select passages.