

SM 301 - Sports and Event Management

3 Credit Hours

This course includes the elements which shape the planning and construction of sports facilities and the issues and problems involved in facility and event management including marketing, production, personnel, and budget. Students may participate in the management of events. This course also includes visits to local facilities and a series of guest lecturers that are experts in the field.