

IN 410 - Seminar Project

3 Credit Hours

As an interdisciplinary course designed as the culmination of four years of undergraduate study and integrating the many disciplines in curriculum, the Seminar Project focuses on the application of content learned in the program. It makes significant connections between course content, skills learned, and application to life, and serves as a bridge to life-long education. Prerequisites: Students must have completed 90 credit hours and be classified as a senior.