GH 330  - History of Technology

3 Credit Hours

This course will discuss and examine technology in the United States, exploring a variety of individuals and their very unique and important ideas. Some of the individuals we will be evaluating are Thomas Jefferson, Eli Whitney, Alexander Graham Bell, Lewis Latimer, Henry Ford, and Morris L. Cooke. The focus of this course will be examining these individuals and their ideas within the context of the historical periods in which they were devised.