

SW 330 - Sociology of the Family

3 Credit Hours

This course introduces students to the various theories that explain family dynamics and their interaction within the wider public sphere. It explains the construct of the family within sociology, how they are formed, the allocation of economic goods within the family, diversity of family units, violence, addiction, divorce, childcare, and intergenerational issues.