

IS 305 - Introduction to Information Systems

3 Credit Hours

This course provides a foundation of understanding for Information Systems (IS) as they apply in business today. Topics include IS fundamentals, effective use of IS, design and management of IS, ethical use of computers, and security of data.