

MFP 510 - Financial Planning and Analysis

3 Credit Hours

This course is an introduction to the personal financial planning profession. The course will cover CFP Board ethics, securities regulation and licensing, the financial planning process, analytical skills to aid in financial decision-making and the formation and operation of a closely held business. The course will preview wealth accumulation, tax, retirement and estate planning techniques.