

MFP 550 - Retirement Planning and Employee Benefits

3 Credit Hours

This course introduces qualified and non-qualified retirement plans, various other tax-advantaged plans, and employee benefits. The course will cover the business use of insurance as an employee benefit, as well as provide an overview of Social Security, disability and health care programs.