

MFP 630 - Research Eval and Financial Planning Practice

3 Credit Hours

This course introduces the key elements necessary to launch and grow a successful financial planning practice: financing, team-building, technology, sales and marketing. The course will cover financial planning practice standards, as well as innovative strategies to scale a practice.