

ES 320 - Coaching and Team Management

3 Credit Hours

This course gives students knowledge about coaching techniques and develops an understanding about working in teams to supervise and manage a competitive team. Students gain an understanding of psychological approaches to motivating people and successful communication techniques.