

DCS 625 - Text Mining & Web Scraping

3 Credit Hours

Students will learn to use programming languages for social media mining. Classroom practices include getting data from Twitter to perform text analysis and sentiment analysis, automated extracting & processing of web contents, etc. The techniques covered in the course will be valuable in later courses like Supervised and Unsupervised Machine Learnings.