

IS 365 - Information Security

3 Credit Hours

This course covers the fundamentals of security management for information systems. Topics include looking at security from a managerial perspective with respect to design, implementation, maintenance, and disaster recovery.