

IS 385 - Object Oriented Design

3 Credit Hours

This course goes in depth into object-oriented design, analysis, and programming using the C++ language.

Topics include class and object models, inheritance among classes and objects, static and dynamic systems, and polymorphism.