

IS 390 - Software Development with Agile Technologies

3 Credit Hours

This course focuses on techniques and methodologies of agile software engineering. Topics include development team roles, product backlog, sprint planning and execution, test -driven development, and development tools and environments.