IS 395 - Decision Support Systems

3 Credit Hours

This course explores the computerized systems that support individual or organization decisions called a decision support system (dss). Topics include dss theory, evaluation, issues in validation, and ability for empirical support.